

Our Baby's Pretty Eyes Won the Photo Contest!

Description

Thanks to all of you who took the time to vote for Avery in the Metroplex Baby & Kids Photo Contest I wrote about last week, she won! I know it's not a major contest, and you don't actually win a prize, she just gets recognition on the website and is entered to win Cutest Kid of 2015!

The winning photo:

photo contest, metroplex baby, parenting, kids, babies,

Here's the link to see her Cutest Kid of the Week profile.

Again, Going Mom and I truly appreciate all of our friends and family who voted and shared the contest with others.

Since I am convinced Avery's eyes only add brilliance to her already beautiful face, I am going to share several close-up shots we've taken over the course of this month.

No more words of "wisdom" or rants about baby formula ads from me! at least not today, just some pretty pictures of our baby. Enjoy!

Mesmerizing. Thatâ€™s all I can say.

Do you have any close-up shots of your kidsâ€™ eyes? For the several I posted here, we probably took close to 1000 pictures that were blurry or something else wrong about them. Ahhh, the life as a parent.
