

List of Affiliates for Health, Fashion, & Fun

Description

I've been honored to be accepted into several wonderful affiliate programs, and although you see them on both sides of my blog page, thought it would be helpful to place everything in one page. Of course this is beneficial to me since I will earn a few cents for each click, but it also gives you a great look on wonderful products and services for things I feel good about promoting.

The products and businesses I support all have something in common to me, they promote living a healthy, active life and/or make life a little less hectic. We all could use that, right? Hope you find something that interests you to help you with whatever your passion may be. If not, please feel free to reach out to let me know how I can help.
