

Do You Have Enough NuttZo for the Super Bowl?

Description

It's Super Bowl weekend! Either this means nothing to you and you aren't watching, or you're super pumped and ready for the Big Game. If it's the latter, chances are you have a game day plan for what eat as you watch the Panthers and Broncos duel it out at Levi's Stadium.

While I'm hardly a huge NFL guy, I'm sure we'll have the game on, and we really don't have much planned for snacking. But I know we have a few jars of NuttZo which is all you need to have a delicious, healthy snack in no time.

It's true, see!

Now, Iâ€™m not here to talk crazy Super Bowl commercials or blab your head off about trying to stay active instead of sitting for the whole game (itâ€™s hard not to though!), I just want to share a nice discount for NuttZo.

As a NuttZo Ambassador, Iâ€™ve been given the power of sharing good health and deliciousness for 20% off. Just go to NuttZoâ€™s website, choose as many jars as youâ€™d like, and enter code dad-20 at checkout. Yep, itâ€™s that easy.

While you wonâ€™t get it in time for the Super Bowl, you can use it as a way to replenish your stock after a big snack attack on Sunday, or just to add to what you have or try it for the first time. Just remember to enter this codeâ€™.

Hope you enjoy your weekend whatever you are doing, and hope you get to enjoy NuttZo for yourself and everyone around you. Just be careful, you never know who might try and steal a biteâ€™.

He wonâ€™t mind if I sneak a bite of this NuttZo Cinnamon Banana Frittata.
