

Self-hosted For A Year + A New Blogging Approach

Description

Thatâ€™s right, around this time last year I made the switch from my free WordPress.com account to a self-hosted WordPress.net blog using figure out how to transfer everything. It took me forever to decide on what self-hosting service to use and figure out how to transfer everything, but I have been completely happy with Bluehost and plan to stick with them.

What I wonâ€™t be sticking to is how Iâ€™ve been blogging in the past. While I donâ€™t have much to hide, Iâ€™ll be sharing less of our day-to-day personal life happenings and focusing more on sharing thoughts on food/products/services/etc. that was use. I know I mentioned most of this before, but wanted to reiterate it here.

From little things like healthy snacks for kids and adults to big items like mattresses (yes, really, stay tuned!), I want to share our thoughts here in hopes that youâ€™ll find them useful. Some reviews will be by my own doing on items we paid for ourselves, and some will be provided to me at a discount or for free. No matter how we received the item, you can trust that I will give you our true thoughts.

Yes, I said our, Avery is picking up her communication skills fast and is improving her ability to actually explain her thoughts to us, so why not have her help with reviews? And since weâ€™re a close, loving family, Going Mom will obviously have her opinion heard on here too. This, along with other health-related topics like quick exercise routines and recipes are all in the Going Dad future.

Donâ€™t worry, if you came here just for the cute pics of Avery, Iâ€™ll still have some on the blog, and thereâ€™s always plenty on my Facebook and Instagram pages. Okay, hereâ€™s one just because. She looks very unsure of the camera hereâ€™!

Currently her favorite pajamas.

I might as well add that, if you're in the market, whether a tech newbie or hosting pro, Bluehost has what you need and helps make things easy and affordable. So, if you want to check them out, I would appreciate you clicking the banner below. Whether you sign up or not, it helps me earn a few cents and maybe even dollars, and it's no difference to you!

Posts will be shorter for small item reviews, but still contain useful information (I hope) to help you decide on if it's worth it to you or not. I am looking forward to giving this new approach a try, and can't wait to get started!

Hope you're having a great start to the New Year! Let me know your thoughts on this new approach and what you'd like to see for reviews, workouts, or recipes and I'll do my best to provide.
