

BaxterCatBooks â€” â€œBaxter is Hungryâ€•

Description

Are you looking for a lighthearted and fun book to read with your young child? The new release childrenâ€™s picture book titled â€œBaxter is Hungryâ€• is a character-driven story about a friendly and outgoing tabby cat that will delight parents and children alike with its short rhymes and vivid illustrations. You and the special child in your life will be drawn in by the cute story and will stay engaged with the bold and colorful pictures. â€œBaxter is Hungryâ€• is about Baxterâ€™s adventures around his neighborhood one morning as he meets some friends during his quest to find food.

â€œBaxter is Hungryâ€• is based on Baxter the cat, a real-life tabby cat rescued from the streets in the Middle East when he was just four weeks old. Born as an Arabian Mau (Mau means street cat in Arabic), he is always looking for food- even though his humans feed him plenty! With his giant ears, extra long tail, and spotted brown tabby fur, he is as handsome and lovable as he is mischievous, and we are so excited to see what he will be doing each time we turn the page. We know you will be entertained by the adventures of Baxter the cat!

BaxterCatBooks also has a companion coloring book called â€œBaxter is Dreaming: A Coloring Book for Catsâ€•, full of one-sided coloring pages that wistfully imagine what cats dream about when they sleep. Do cats dream about fish dinners and cozy trees? Or perhaps they dream about squirrels and fluttering butterflies? Your imagination is the limit when it comes to coloring in these fun illustrations in â€œBaxter is Dreaming: A Coloring Book for Catsâ€•, which is a coloring book appropriate for all ages.
