

Did It Work? Where's the Coffee?

Description

So, after posting my last post on making the switch to being self-hosted, I think I transferred most of the important things over to www.going-dad.com!

Go me! I think!..

So tell me, what do you see in your inbox if you are currently a follower?

And please, I'd like to know what annoys you or what you'd like to see added. I now have more freedom on what I can do with the blog, and as I figure things out, hopefully I use this said freedom.

Until then, it's 4am and I should be sleeping!..4 hours ago. We have several trips planned for our Sunday, and I think multiple coffee stops will be included! Hello, caffeine!

As I said last post, have a great rest of your weekend!
