

Going Dad™s Top Ten Pinterest Picks (3): Baby Memes

Description

Has your kid ever randomly laughed at the most unexpected thing? When she was just a squishy baby, Avery sat next to me in her Mamas & Papas Baby Snug chair as I was cutting bread when she started giggling out loud.

Like any new parent would do, I grabbed the video camera that™s always nearby and luckily got her to do it again. As proof, I uploaded it to YouTube for all to see.

I later tried to replicate the laugh again and got nothing, just a blank stare. Babies truly are the 8th wonder of the world.

With funny babies on the mind, I searched for laughing babies on Pinterest. What I found wasn™t exactly laughing babies, but multiple baby memes that gave me a good laugh.

There are many with the same picture but different captions which I tried to stay away from. Some captions are just vulgar and not funny to me, so I hope you enjoy these.

1. Going Mom and I are both advocates of breast milk and frown on formula if it can be avoided, so I got a kick out this.

2. This is one of the reoccurring baby pictures, but I love the caption. I already know Iâ€™™I be doing the airplane with a spoon for Avery.

3. I bet this thought really goes through their head at some point.

4. Kind of sad, and I apologize if anyone is offended, but this makes me laugh.

5. I bet this happens to a lot of babies quite often.

6. I believe some cats can be evil, this cat being one of them.

7. This could be really bad if itâ€™s another boy in the doggie doorâ€¦!

8. Yes, another one you might see a lot of, but the captions crack me up!

9. One way to deal with the evil cat problemâ€¦!

10. This is a legitimate concern. Same for baby powder!

Hope you enjoyed these baby memes. If you have any favorites, please share as I'd love to see more!
