Instant Happiness with Pictures of a Smiling Baby

Description

Hi there and Happy Sunday!

Hope youâ€™re having a great weekend and the greatness continues for all of today right into next week.

I posted pictures of our smiling Avery back in April of this year to help provide instant stress relief, so I figured itâ€™s time for some updated smiles from our rapidly growing and ever so beautiful daughter.

Instant stress relief and happiness are sure to follow as you scroll down below. Start your day with a smile and enjoy the pics, I know Going Mom and I will be doing the same!

Thanks for stopping by, and if you feel gravity pulling the corners of your mouth southward, come back andâ€¦wait forâ€¦yepâ€¦â€•turn that frown upside-down!â€•
